KRUGER REFUSES.

He Will Not Submit to the Demand of England for a Court of Inquiry.

BOON PAUL PROPOSES NEW TERMS.

It Is Believed the Only Way to Settle the Controversy Will Be a Resort to Arms.

Unless the Boers Completely Back Down, Which Is Not Likely, the Crisis Will Quickly Develop Into War—Public Interest Slight.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—There is no longer any doubt that President Kruger has refused to submit to the demands of Mr. Chamberlain for the appointment of a court of inquiry. He may have done so diplomatically or hedgingly. But that his answer is regarded by the British government as tantamount to positive refusal is now an established fact. The colonial office is normally non committal, but there are other evidences which amply justify the statement.

The report that President Kruger has proposed new terms is somewhat verified by the guarded comment of the colonial office officials and the irritability displayed there. There is not the slightest doubt that they now believe war is the only way to settle the controversy. They would far rather have had a curt, defiant answer than the temporizing answer which the Boer president has sent. With the former Great Britain would have plain grounds for a quick commencement of hostilities. Under the circumstances, which it is believed now exist, aggressive action needs considerable explanation to justify it in the eyes of the world and the English majority who still declare that war would be an outrage.

However, if Mr. Chamberlain has his way, it is believed President Kruger's counter proposals will meet with scant attention, and unless the Boers completely back down, which is not likely, the crisis will quickly develop into war. It has developed that the war office has been aware of the nature of the Transvaal government's answer for several days, and that it was communicated to the war office, hence it is probable that Great Britain will delay the denouncement as little as possible.

A high colonial officer expressed to the representative of the Associated Press his disgust at what he termed "Kruger's cupidity and hypocrisy."

He said: "The kind of game which Kruger is playing must be clear to Americans. The protestations of the Boers that they wish to live a quiet, agricultural life, may be the tune of some on the veldt but the gang in Pretoria is simply after money. Though President Kruger says many harsh things of the Outlanders, he never hesitated to make money out of them, either by fair or foul means."

"This Transvaal question can not be judged by recent occurrences. You must go back 50 years. It has been hanging fire all that time, and the sooner it is settled now the better."

Though the official did not actually say so, it was clear that he believed war was the only method of settlement. It is learned that the government is somewhat annoyed at the public's slight interest in the Transvaal.

The official above quoted said to a newspaper representative: "Dreyfus seems the only thing that our people think about, though England is in a most serious crisis. This indifference is perhaps typical."

A special dispatch from Cape Town says there is great danger of an outbreak of violence on the frontier and that the seum of South Africa are enlisting throughout the colony and are being sent to Pitsani and Jameson on the border.

THE PORTO RICO STORM.

The Bodies of 2,500 Victims Buried, 1,000 Persons Were Injured and 2,000 People Are Still Missing.

PONCE, P. There are opportunities here now for investors. There is the greatest lack of money for repairing damages, replanting and replenishing stocks.

The aldermen appointed committees for the distribution of relief stores, etc., but the military authorities objected to it.

Billot in the middle of the courtroom, stopped, chatted and smiled. Labori looked very well. He was given a cushioned arm chair. Madame Labori, looking well, was also in court. Labori was warmly congratulated by friends. Capt. Dreyfus, on entering, smilingly shook hands with Labori.
